

ECE 401: Drama in Early Childhood Education
Dr K. A. Korb & Akolo, A. James, University of Jos
Revision

1. Overview of Drama in Early Childhood Education

- Define drama
- Explain what drama in education is and what drama in education is not.
- Explain the five theories of drama

2. Types of Drama

- Describe the three main types of drama
- Explain and be able to plan activities for two specific types of drama under the three major types of drama.

3. Importance of Drama in the Development and Education of the Child

- Describe how drama helps foster development in each of the four domains of development (e.g., physical development/health; social/emotional; cognitive; spiritual)

4. Teaching with Drama

- Describe and apply the first step for planning any dramatic activity in education.
- Explain and be able to use the Before, During, and After instructional framework in planning drama in ECE.
- Describe and be able to plan a dramatic play centre.
- List free materials for drama
- Mention five guidelines for teaching with drama
- Explain three principles for motivating children to participate in drama

5. History of Drama in ECE

- Describe the use of drama in three major world civilizations

6. Dramatic Techniques and Elements

- Briefly explain the dramatic techniques and elements you know.
- In what ways can you apply dramatic elements and techniques to learning in ECE?